

AANA Foundation State Advocates

Qualifications include:

- Willingness to perform voluntary work on behalf of the AANA Foundation.
- Ability to speak in front of large groups to promote the AANA Foundation.
- Knowledge of the AANA Foundation's mission, vision, programs, fundraising initiatives, annual goals and objectives, etc.
- Commitment to participate in the AANA Foundation Annual Giving campaigns.
- Enthusiasm to ask others to join in contributing to the AANA Foundation.
- Kindheartedness to thank those who donate to the Foundation

Duties include:

- Speaking at state association meetings
- Distributing Foundation materials at state association meetings
- Volunteering time at the Foundation Booth at AANA meetings
- Volunteering time at AANA Foundation special events
- Handwriting thank you notes to donors in your state
- Organizing state association fund-raisers to raise money for Annual Giving and/or state-sponsored scholarships
- Submitting articles for the Foundation Forum
- Donating individually to the Foundation
- Attending training sessions
- Participating in Advocate conference calls

Responsibility of the state association:

- To support the efforts of the AANA Foundation Advocate at the state meetings
- To co-sponsor the AANA Foundation Advocate's attendance at a training session